THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

WHAT MIGHT BE DONE.

By CHARLES MACKAY.

What might be done if men were wise,
What glorious deeds, my suffering brother
Would they write
In love and right,
And cease their sorrows for one another?

Oppression's heart may be imbed
With kindred drops of loving kindness;
And now the poor
From shore to shore,
Light on the eyes of mental blindness.

All slavery, warfare, lies, and wrongs—
All vice and crime might die together,
And air and earth,
Be free as warmth in sunny weather.

What might be done? this might be done;
And more than this, my suffering brother
More than the tongue
E'er said or sung,
If men were wise and loved each other.

(From the Boston Post.)

MELTING ACCIDENT.

He clasped his Julian's form.
That form the fairest under heaven,
His love just like the day, was warm—
The mercury at ninety-seven.

Oh, Julian dear, he cried,
To his Julian's heart, so free and getting;
The gold in thine alabaster chest,
That never can grow less by sweating.

She bowed her head upon his breast,
As hotter grew the summer weather,
And in her form he warmly pressed,
They met right away together!

Washington.—The following Indian legend, relative to the spirit-home of Washington, is extorted from Morgan's League of the Iroquois. It is curious, as showing the estimation in which the Father of his Country was held by the singular Indians, and the idea of future felicity.

"Among the modern beliefs engrained upon the ancient faith of the Iroquois, there is one which is worthy of particular notice. It relates to Washington. According to their present belief, no white man ever deserved the additional name of Washington, as he was created by the Great Spirit, no power having made him in the scheme of theology. He was excommunicated from Heaven and from the place of punishment. But an exception was made in favor of Washington. Because of his justice and benevolence to the Indian, he was promoted to the rank of chief, and left to make their own terms with the American Government, the Iroquois were more exposed to severe measures than the other tribes in their dealing with the Indians. Washington, in his turn, interceded for the Indians, and all who were warrained as represented by DICKINSON & SNYDER.

NOTICE.—We are obliged to Capt. E. M. Stone for late eastern papers.

NOTICE.—Those who want a good daguerreotype will find it their interest to go to Harris's.

NOTICE.—Messrs. Green & Burke have their rooms so full, that they will hold another sale of furniture this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

NOTICE.—The Show TRADE.—Eighty thousand pairs of shoes have been sent to Boston from Haverhill, Mass., within two days of this week. They are principally for the Southern market.

NOTICE.—We have some of the kindest friends in the world. Mr. Jones, of Adams' Express Co., and our friends of the Cincinnati, Hamilton, and Dayton railroad, laid New York papers of the 21st upon our desk last night, at 10:30 o'clock.

NOTICE.—The Marshal of the Louisville Chancery Court will sell to-day at 9 o'clock, at the store on Market street above Second, a desirable lot of millinery and fancy goods. See advertisement in ar-other column.

NOTICE.—CHILLS AND FEVER.—We again say to our friends, who may be afflicted with this emaciating and loathsome disease, call upon Dr. U. C. Sherill, 465 Market street, between Third and Fourth, and get a bottle of Mortimer's Entrope. This is a sure remedy, and leaves no bad effects in the system.

NOTICE.—NAVAL ENGAGEMENT—GLORIOUS VICTORY.— A few nights since, a mail-boat, approaching the shore at Bath, Me., was boarded by a police officer, when the brave crew instantly threw overboard.
The gallant officer, however, again boarded the enemy, and succeeded in capturing the vessel, with a cargo of brandy and wine valued at $400.

NOTICE.—A CHANCE FOR LIBERIAN BARRIES.—Tupper, the poor, has had a gold medal struck, to be presented to the author of the best literary production, in prose and verse, by a resident of Liberia. He proposes that such a medal shall be presented annually for the encouragement of science and literature.

NOTICE.—POLICEMEN SOLD.—The schooner Linds, which arrived last Sunday morning at Newburyport, Mass., was instantly boarded by about twenty policemen, (from information furnished them,) who seized three 20 gallon kegs, one 16 do, and one 10 do, which proved on examination to be full of salt sugar.

NOTICE.—GODNEY'S LADIES' BOOK.—The publisher has sent this monthly to us for September. It is, as usual, full of interesting reading matter, especially that part of it devoted exclusively to ladies—we mean Mrs. Hale's department. We notice that the stories are of a better character than have been published previously as reading for the ladies.

NOTICE.—RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—Yesterday morning as the train of the Covington and Lexington Railroad, was going out, when about two miles from Cynthiana, the cars ran over the leg of a black man, cutting his foot off just about the ankle. It seems that he had been cutting grass and fell asleep on the track—did not get off in time.

NOTICE.—AN IRISHMAN NAMED DAVID BARRY, had his foot and ankle cut off yesterday on the line of the Lexington and Frankfort Railroad, and his leg so bruised that amputation at the knee will be necessary.
It seems that he was expecting the train—had gone to a spring and gotten a drink, and returning, sat upon the rail, when he became drowsy. He heard the cars coming and made a start to get out of the way, but was not quick enough. We are not advised whether or not the engineer in either case blew a warning.
